Introduction

Respected Doctor, Mediwin Research Healthcare has been engaged in the manufacturing of Ayurvedic medicines since 2014 and is widely recognized by the abbreviation M.R.H. The company is committed to maintaining the highest standards of quality and believes in the strength of teamwork. Our team includes experienced Ayurvedic scholars and professors from reputed Ayurvedic medical colleges, ensuring that every product is developed with scientific knowledge and traditional Ayurvedic principles. Through its dedicated division, Naturo Genesis, Mediwin manages the manufacturing and distribution of Ayurvedic medicines with complete responsibility and quality assurance. The company is located in Ambala, Haryana, at the foothills of the Himalayas,

An area known for its rich heritage of medicinal plants and Ayurveda. As we all know, Ayurveda is a priceless gift from Lord Dhanvantari to mankind. Since ancient times, great sages such as Maharishi Charaka, Maharishi Sushruta, Vagbhata, Kashyapa, and Bharadwaja have contributed thousands of Ayurvedic scriptures that preserve this invaluable knowledge. These ancient scholars explained the medicinal properties of various herbs and plants, their chemical constituents, their therapeutic benefits, and the appropriate methods of using different plant parts for specific diseases. They also described the ideal forms of Ayurvedic preparations, including Kwath (decoctions), Churna (powders), Asava-Arishta (herbal fermented formulations), Bhasma (calcined preparations), and Ghrita (medicated ghee). The classical Ayurvedic texts also provide effective treatments for many conditions that are considered difficult to manage. It is a matter of great pride that Maharishi Sushruta, regarded as the Father of Surgery, is recognized as one of the world's earliest and greatest surgeons.

Mediwin Research Healthcare is dedicated to preserving this rich Ayurvedic tradition while delivering safe, high-quality, and effective herbal healthcare solutions for modern medical practice.

India has witnessed periods of foreign influence during which the traditional Ayurvedic system of medicine gradually declined while modern Western medicine gained prominence. As a result, our ancient healthcare heritage faced significant challenges and was systematically overlooked. Another major concern in the herbal pharmaceutical industry is the increasing use of hybrid medicinal herbs, which often possess lower therapeutic potency compared to naturally cultivated medicinal plants. Fortunately, India continues to be blessed with a rich variety of authentic herbs that retain their complete medicinal properties. Mediwin Research Healthcare places special emphasis on the quality, authenticity, and purity of every herb used in the manufacturing process, ensuring that each formulation meets the highest standards of Ayurvedic excellence.

Naturo Genesis (M.R.H.) is actively engaged in research on several chronic and difficult-to-manage health conditions. The company manufactures a comprehensive range of Ayurvedic formulations, including: Asava & Arishta Creams & Ointments Tablets Capsules Herbal Oils Syrups and Liquid Preparations And many other classical and proprietary Ayurvedic medicines Each product is developed with a commitment to quality, safety, and therapeutic effectiveness.

Naturo Genesis (M.R.H.) is not only serving the Indian market but has also established its presence in international markets through the distribution of high-quality Ayurvedic medicines. The company has successfully built a strong reputation for reliability, quality, and customer trust across borders.

M.R.H. Natura Genesis remains firmly committed to maintaining the highest standards of quality and excellence in every product it manufactures.

Naturo Castor Oil

Dosage: As directed by the physician.

Castor oil is a traditional remedy sometimes used to induce labor, but its effectiveness and safety are debated. It's a laxative, so it can cause bowel contractions, and some believe this can stimulate uterine contractions and potentially induce labor. However, there's limited evidence supporting its effectiveness and safety compared to other induction methods.

- Castor oil is a strong laxative that can cause intestinal spasms, which some believe can stimulate uterine contractions.
- It's also thought to affect the release of prostaglandins, which can help soften the cervix.

A small amount of rosemary oil mixed with a carrier oil such as coconut or jojoba oil applied on the scalp also helps in maintaining a healthy texture and reducing dandruff.

The various classifications of headache

The difference between migraine and headache lies in the fact that migraine affects one side of the head, while ordinary headaches are generalized through the entire skull. In the medical literature, cephalalgia is subdivided as follows: Tension-type headaches or tension cephalalgia are the most common form of headache, with a high percentage rate of about 70%.

The remaining 30% are divided into:

Migraine, without aura :

Approximately 85% of all migraine attacks. Characterized by nausea, with or without vomiting. The attack may be violent or throbbing, or dull and constant like "a weight of many kilos on the head." The pain is exacerbated by movement, coughing, sneezing, exertion and light. The sufferer generally prefers to lie down in the dark and away from any noise. The duration can range from a few hours to three days. There are generally no warning signs, and the pain appears on one side of the skull before quickly radiating through the rest of the head.

Migraine with aura (classical):

Approximately 14% of migraine attacks. It differs from common migraine in that it is associated with premonitory disturbances such as hypersensitivity to light and/or sound, darkening of one side of the field of vision, scintillating lines and "floaters." The duration ranges from 4 to 24 hours.

Cluster headaches:

Approximately 1% of headache cases. Characterized by rapid onset and great intensity, they are extremely incapacitating. They are generally located around one eye or temple, hence the name cluster headaches. They afflict men far more commonly than women. The pain of cluster headaches can be so intense that victims want to bang their head against the wall, or even commit suicide. They normally last only a few minutes but may recur 10 times or more over the next 24 hours.

Dosage : As directed by the Physician.

Naturo Castor Oil

Dosage: As directed by the physician.

Castor oil is a traditional remedy sometimes used to induce labor, but its effectiveness and safety are debated. It's a laxative, so it can cause bowel contractions, and some believe this can stimulate uterine contractions and potentially induce labor. However, there's limited evidence supporting its effectiveness and safety compared to other induction methods.

- Castor oil is a strong laxative that can cause intestinal spasms, which some believe can stimulate uterine contractions.
- It's also thought to affect the release of prostaglandins, which can help soften the cervix.
